

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

vs.

JOSEPH B. BUTTERCASE,

Defendant.

8:12CR425

MEMORANDUM AND ORDER

This matter is before the Court on the request of the defendant seeking compassionate release, Filing No. 152, and to have counsel appointed, Filing No. 154. The Defendant seeks a reduction of sentence pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3582(c)(1)(A) as amended by Section 603 of the First Step Act, Pub. L. No. 115-391, 132 Stat. 5194 (2018). In Section 603 of the First Step Act, Congress amended 18 U.S.C. § 3582(c)(1)(A) to permit defendants to move a sentencing court for compassionate release “after the defendant has fully exhausted all administrative rights to appeal a failure of the Bureau of Prisons to bring a motion on the defendant’s behalf or the lapse of 30 days from the receipt of such a request by the warden of the defendant’s facility, whichever is earlier.” Administrative exhaustion under the Act is a jurisdictional prerequisite to this Court making a decision as to compassionate relief. The Court notes that it appears the defendant has not attempted to exhaust his administrative remedies with the prison system. The Court will appoint the Federal Public Defender’s Office to oversee this case. The Court will order the United States Probation office to prepare an investigative report, review the relevant medical records and provide the Court with any additional relevant records not included in the filing and conduct a review of the suggested home detention placement and to file a report with the Court. The Court will likewise order the government to file its response.

THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED THAT:

1. Defendant's motion to appoint counsel, Filing No. 154, is granted. The Public Defender's office, Rich McWilliams, is hereby appointed to represent the defendant and file any appropriate documents or briefs, if Defendant so chooses.
2. The Defendant shall, through his attorney, file his notice of exhaustion within 60 days of this Memorandum and Order. Failure to do so might result in dismissal of the Motion for Compassionate Release.
3. The United States Attorney's office, Susan Lehr, shall have 14 days from the date the Probation Office files its investigative order to file a responsive brief; and
4. The United States Probation Office, Brandon Maxon, is ordered to review the defendant's motion and Bureau of Prison records and file an investigative report within 30 days after the Defendant shows he as exhausted his administrative remedies.
5. The Defendant shall have 7 days after the filing of the Government's brief to file a reply brief if he so chooses.

Dated this 13th day of May, 2025.
